PAST PERFORMANCE IS NOT AN INDICATOR OF FUTURE RESULTS. There can be no assurance that the Fund's investment objectives will be achieved or that investors will not lose some or all of their investment.

NET PERFORMANCE ESTIMATES ARE UNOFFICIAL and are only Internal estimates (preliminary) of our results, represent the investment class at inception, have not been provided by the fund administrator and are not audited. Our final numbers may differ from these estimates. Investor performance may differ depending on "new issue" eligibility, individual date of investment and different fee arrangements. Bornite net performance estimate is calculated (i) net of a management fee of 1.5%, (ii) performance allocation of 15% and includes (iii) both the deduction of fund expenses (including brokerage commissions and custodial fees) and the reinvestment of interest, dividends, and capital gains.
